◆ YOUR JUDGE ◆

Ilex Whiting (Cragvallie)

I showed my first Dalmatian in 1976 and since then have made-up UK, International and Irish Champions in Dalmatians, Vizslas and Wirehaired Vizslas. My first Champion Dalmatian won her crowning CC at WKC in the early 1980s and then went on to win the Group; now that was a day to remember!

I judged a couple of Fauves in variety classes many years ago and was instantly attracted to these charming little Hounds. I knew a few people who had the breed, found out a bit more about them and became the proud owner of a bitch 13 years ago. I had some success with her, gaining 1 CC and 2 RCCs, then bred a litter from which I kept a dog pup. Whilst I found these super dogs to live with in the home, I disliked the fact that they couldn't run free and be relied on to come back. I have 'dabbled' in two sizes of Dachshund and the same lack of recall applied to them, so whilst I loved living with all these Hounds it is with regret I decided they don't fit with where I live, having deer and hare on fields in close proximity to busy main roads.

I have been judging since 1981 and award CCs in Dalmatians, Vizslas and BFDB. I am due to award my first set of CCs in Wirehaired Vizslas next year. I had the privilege of judging Dalmatians in Sydney three years ago and in Germany earlier this year.

It is a great honour to be invited to judge at the BFDB Club Championship Show and am looking forward to meeting up with some of your lovely Hounds today.

Ilex
