◆ YOUR JUDGE ◆

Liz Thornton (Mochras)

Thank you for this invitation to judge the Open show of the BFDB Club, I am looking forward to it and thank everyone who will go to the effort of bringing hounds to be looked over.

I have owned and shown dogs since acquiring my first Irish Wolfhound as a girl, in 1970. I first gave CCs some time around the mid 1980s and never sought to judge any other breed for many more years. I first became aware of the Basset Fauve de Bretagne when, with my then husband and Roger and Debbie Tebbutt, we hired a two engined plane and flew over to Dinan for the weekend to look at the breed at the Elevage, which must have been around 1990. Patrick loved to fly, Roger wanted to photograph Mont St Michel from the air, and Debbie and I spent a not inconsiderable time eating and drinking very well indeed and sleeping on La Plage the next day. Sadly my memories of the Fauves are not supported by any photographs. My main memories are of the display of Norman country dancing and the way in which the dogs were shown, on lengths of baler twine while being discussed by two or three breed experts at a time while les Anglais desperately tried to figure out what was going on. Soon afterwards the Tebbutts acquired Jacques from one of the first UK litters. Very typical of his breed in that he free-ranged around their farm and didn't much respond to anyone calling his name! We were in Anglesey when Pat Crawshaw (Ceffni) had a nice litter, again not tempted. A decade or so later on it was Bruce who thought it looked a nice little breed to add to the household for their usual role as ear cleaner to Irish Wolfhounds. Clementine fulfilled her vocation very well indeed and fifteen years later is still with us, while the Wolfhounds have died out.

We now have several generations of BFDB under the "Mochrashounds" appellation, always living in the house enjoying the best life I can give them. Some are UK and/or Irish Champions (we like our Irish summer holidays, Bruce can play golf and I can play dog shows). Although we cannot hunt with hounds in the UK my background included a mis spent youth lamping for foxes and deer with my brother and his friends, hare coursing with Wolfhounds, following Bloodhounds when they had trials on the estate near our then home and (pre and post ban) owning many excellent lure coursing Wolfhounds, Larkspur and Erin being the top stakes winners. My two imported BFDB were from hunting kennels in France. It has been extremely interesting, picking the owners brains for how these little hounds hunt and which features most make them "fit for function" in the opinion of those who know they are expected to cover 13 kilometres or so during a hunt.

Elizabeth Thornton

◆ YOUR SPECIAL AWARDS JUDGE ◆

Pauline Tabron (Eldonmere)

My facebook header describes me as 'Dog obsessed Northern Soul Dancer' which pretty much describes my two passions in life. My dogs have ranged from Cocker Spaniel to Lancashire Heeler to Golden Retrievers to finally Basset Fauve De Bretagne.

It wasn't until 2005 when we had met Fauves at the Discover Dogs stand on my first visit to Crufts that we came away with the hope of a puppy for later in the year. "I have no aspirations of showing; I would just like a pet" will be words that taught me a big lesson – Never say Never!

Fudge, Karezig Miss Nikki at Eldonmere, brought me to showing at Championship level and she achieved 1 CC and 1 RCC, breeding, scent trailing, obedience training (although at times you would never guess they had been to classes) followed; and now judging. My first judging appointment was in 2017 at Vale of Clwyd Canine Association, a first time for classes held for the breed. My Best of Breed went onto Hound Group 1 and then Best in Show – a hard judging debut to follow. I visited France for the National d'Elevage in 2018 which was a great experience to see the breed in their country of origin and meet fellow Fauve enthusiasts both Basset and Griffon Fauve.

I currently have 5 Fauves at home. I am the Membership Secretary for the Club and am listed as a B List Judge for Basset Fauve De Bretagne. I am honoured that the Basset Fauve De Bretagne Club has given me this opportunity and am looking forward to judging the Special Awards Classes at the 2022 Open Show. Thank you to everyone for entering the Special Awards classes and I am looking forward to going over your dogs.

Pauline Tabron
