◆ YOUR JUDGES ◆

Breed Judge: Debbie Ellrich (Malrich)

My first sighting of a Fauve was back in the mid 1980s at South East Hound Club held at Kempton Park racecourse. Nick Frost had won with a Basset Hound & Fauve & I fell in love with the breed instantly.

Fast forward three decades and a chance conversation with Roy Blevins at a show and I said to him next time you have a litter of Fauves I would love a puppy bitch.

In September 2013 we were over at Belfast Championship Show with our Basset Hounds. Roy had arranged to bring the puppy to us on the day before we travelled home. This very naughty puppy firmly made herself at home. Climbed through the steering wheel across the dashboard and never looked back. Ginger had arrived!

Her very outgoing personality and love of life made her a fantastic show dog. We had a fabulous time together. She is now a Champion in five countries, an FCI International Champion and the second Fauve to gain her Junior Warrant title. She also won Best of Breed at Crufts, was Top Puppy 2014, Top Fauve two years running and now has a Champion daughter. Most of all she has me wrapped around her paw! A dog in a million and a wonderful breed that I promote alongside our Basset Hounds at every opportunity.

I am very much looking forward to judging at the Club Open Show and thank the Officers & Committee for inviting me.

Special Awards Judge: Jane Eyeington (Meadowdale)

For over 25 years, with my husband Steve, we have had both the working and show gundogs. Our breeds have been Labradors, German Shorthaired Pointers, English Springer Spaniel and a Welsh Terrier. We were granted the affix 'Meadowdale' in February 1995.

To date, we have 'made up' a FULL Champion German Shorthaired. My main breed for showing is the English Springer Spaniel. To date there have been 11 'UK' Show Champion dogs to carry the Meadowdale affix, and 4 Irish Show Champions, along with many other awards such as JW, ShCM, CCs and RCCs

I was delighted to have achieved 'Top Breeder' 2013 and 2014 and 'Top Brood' for 2013, 2014 and 2016 for the English Springer Spaniel. Previously also having been awarded several 'Top Puppy' awards. A thrilling moment for me was in 2014, to have won 'Best of Breed' at Crufts. Then in 2015 to have 'made up' the first Black/White & Tan dog for 20 years in the breed.

I have had the pleasure of judging overseas, in Australia, Sweden, Finland, Denmark and Holland. I am fortunate to have been passed to award CCs in 21 Gundogs, including the group, and two Terrier breeds

As well as the gundogs, I have a passion for the hounds and terriers. In 2019 I attended the Basset Fauve De Bretagne seminar, and was delighted to have passed the assessment. I very much enjoy watching all the hounds being judged and talking to exhibitors and breeders to gain knowledge and insight into the breeds.

I am very much looking forward to judging the Basset Fauve De Bretagne Club, special classes, a true honour.
